The message of The Divine Mercy tells us that God loves us – all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

❖ 60th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations on April 30, 2023

Cardinal Blase Cupich has called World Day of Prayer for Vocations as an Annual Vocations Appeal within the Archdiocese. Every year, World Day of Prayer for Vocations falls on Good Shepherd Sunday. We see in Jesus, the Good Shepherd, the heart of every calling. He says, "A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." The mission of Jesus culminated in his self-sacrificing love. He gave himself so that we might live. This is the great mystery of love present in the Eucharist: "This is my body, given up for you. This is my blood, poured out for you." Everyone is called, and everyone has a vocation in the Church.

On this special day we continue to ask all to be generous in praying for and supporting vocations to the priesthood, consecrated life, and permanent diaconate.
