The Gospel Reading for this Third Sunday of Easter recalls the unexpected encounter between the Risen Jesus Christ and two of his disciples. When Jesus joins them on the road, they do not recognize Him. They take Him for a stranger who is unacquainted with all that has happened in the last few days.

Jesus Christ chides them for their lack of belief and understanding. Then patiently He explains all that has happened and shows them how recent events have fulfilled the Scriptures.

The two disciples then invite Him to join them for dinner and it is within the context of the dinner that they recognize Jesus.

St. Luke, recalling the scene, records the precise words which Jesus used at the Last Supper.

The two disciples now know that their guest is truly Jesus of Nazareth. This, then, is one of the ways that we, too, recognize Jesus Christ: His Real Presence, His Body and Blood, His Soul and Divinity, in the Holy Eucharist.

This gospel Reading from Saint Luke invites us to reflect, once again, on the belief of the Church in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the consecrated Host.

We, too, you and I, see the Risen Lord. We recognize Him when the Priest says the words of Consecration: "This is my Body . . . This is my Blood."

May we take the opportunity during this Easter Season to thank the Risen Jesus Christ for this inestimable Gift.

Amen.

❖ Our New Director Update

Our parish is affiliated to the Archdiocese of Chicago, and the new policies have been implemented since 2020 in accepting a religious priest from abroad. The Office for Externs and International Priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago is requiring an application, an interview, and evaluation. Upon meeting all these criteria, a religious visa approval process will start. Currently, the priest from the Diocese of Incheon, South Korea is in religious visa approval process. We ask for your prayers for the priest coming from Incheon Diocese.

❖ 60th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations on April 30, 2023

Cardinal Blase Cupich has called World Day of Prayer for Vocations as an Annual Vocations Appeal within the Archdiocese. Every year, World Day of Prayer for Vocations falls on Good Shepherd Sunday. We see in Jesus, the Good Shepherd, the heart of every calling. He says, "A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." The mission of Jesus culminated in his self-sacrificing love. He gave himself so that we might live. This is the great mystery of love present in the Eucharist: "This is my body, given up for you. This is my blood, poured out for you." Everyone is called, and everyone has a vocation in the Church.

On this special day we continue to ask all to be generous in praying for and supporting vocations to the priesthood, consecrated life, and permanent diaconate.
