4th Sunday of Easter

Gospel | John 10:1-10
I am the gate for the sheep.

The theme woven throughout Scripture is this: we are like sheep, prone to wander from the fold in search of false hope that can never fully satisfy. Because our Shepherd is good, the gate to salvation is open, but we'll never find it on our own. We try to be self-sufficient, to do all the good deeds, and we may even convince ourselves for a time that we've got our stuff together more than someone else. But the reality is, when left to our own devices, we will just keep ramming ourselves up against false hope and good intentions.

Jesus shows us the gate—no, actually, Jesus is the gate. He is the way. Listen for His call. Submit to His leading. Quit stubbornly ramming yourself up against your own plans. Instead, look to Jesus and enter in. He whispers to us, "I am the gate. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture" (John 10:9).

❖ 60th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations on April 30, 2023

Cardinal Blase Cupich has called World Day of Prayer for Vocations as an Annual Vocations Appeal within the Archdiocese. Every year, World Day of Prayer for Vocations falls on Good Shepherd Sunday. We see in Jesus, the Good Shepherd, the heart of every calling. He says, "A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." The mission of Jesus culminated in his self-sacrificing love. He gave himself so that we might live. This is the great mystery of love present in the Eucharist: "This is my body, given up for you. This is my blood, poured out for you." Everyone is called, and everyone has a vocation in the Church.

On this special day we continue to ask all to be generous in praying for and supporting vocations to the priesthood, consecrated life, and permanent diaconate.
