Gospel | John 14:1-12
I am the way and the truth and the life.

Jesus starts with asking the disciples to have faith in Him. They all have faith in God. They learned their faith from their parents, family, and friends. And now Jesus is asking them to have faith in Him. He says if they know Him, then they know the Father. The Father is in Him, and He is in the Father. Even if they don't have faith because of that, they should have faith because of Jesus' words and works that they have heard and seen. The disciples just are not seeing the obvious. Jesus is telling them: My teachings will guide your feet. My presence will sustain your spirit. In all the twists and turns your future path may take, 'I am the Way.' Jesus is asking the disciples and us to open our eyes and to open our hearts to the will of God.

Jesus says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life." Let's start with "I am the way." The first Christians were referred to as people of The Way. The image of the way is often a well-traveled path. To follow the way (Jesus) is a daily and frequent stroll along the path. It is a way of living every minute of every day, every decision, every action, every thought. We do not follow the path for just part of the day, or part of the year. We follow the way always, everywhere, and every day.
