12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel | Mt. 10:26-33
 Do not be afraid of those who kill the body.

The readings for the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A are a call to trust in God. Although our circumstances can be unsettling or frightening, God is always caring for us. The first reading Jeremiah trusts in the Lord even though he is being plotted against. The psalm expresses hope that God will hear our prayers in times of distress. The second reading reminds us that Jesus rescued us even though we are sinners. And in the gospel, Jesus tells us "Fear no one" and that we are loved and cared for by God.

❖ Our New Director Update

The Archbishop of Archdiocese of Chicago approved our new Director in mid of May, so the office of Legal Services started filing premium processing for a religious visa for him to US Citizen and Immigration Service on June 1st. Please continue to pray for the priest coming from Incheon Diocese.

❖ Lifting of Covid-related sanctions

The public health emergency attributable to the COVID-19 pandemic is set to expire on May 11. Though the health emergency is over, we must continue to respect each other's preferences regarding personal health and safety. Proper hygiene, including washing and sanitizing of hands, is always encouraged in group settings like parishes, offices, and schools.
