Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe

In Today's Readings...

The readings for the Solemnity of Christ the King Year A tell us that the kingship of Christ is one of a caring master who longs for us to live together in harmony in his kingdom. The first reading tells of the Lord gathering in his flock and tending to them. The second reading reminds us that everything is subject to Jesus Christ, including death. And in the gospel Jesus tells of the Judgement of the Nations, where those who served him in this life are separated from those who did not.

First Reading | Ez 34:11-12, 15-17
"As for you my flock, I will judge between one sheep and another."

Second Reading | 1 Cor 15:20-26, 28
"Christ will hand over the kingdom to his God and Father so that God may be all in all."

Gospel | Mt 25:31-46
"The Son of Man will sit upon his glorious throne and he will separate them one from another."

❖ 2nd Collection for Religious Retirement Fund

During the weekend of November 25 and 26, we will hold the Retirement Fund for Religious collection, an annual appeal that benefits approximately 30,000 senior sisters, brothers and religious order priests. Per the national website, "Across the United States, hundreds of religious communities lack financial resources sufficient to meet the retirement and health-care needs of aging members. Many elder religious worked for years for small stipends, leaving a large gap in retirement savings. At the same time, fewer religious are able to serve in compensated ministry. Today, retired religious outnumber wage-earners by nearly three to one." Please consider contributing what you can to this fund this year.
